

Ava's Adventure Map

CALVERT CLIFFS & SOLOMONS ISLAND

Shipwrecks & Hidden Treasure of the Chesapeake Bay

Follow the wind,
trust the clues,
and let the Chesapeake
guide you.

CHESAPEAKE BAY

MAP LEGEND

Known Wreck Zones
Historical wrecks recorded in the area

Possible Wreck Zones
High traffic, storms,
and hazardous shoals

Legendary Treasure
Stories & Local Folklore

Historic Landmarks & Points of Interest

CALVERT COUNTY

CALVERT CLIFFS (Approx.)

Shifting shoals
and strong storms
have claimed many ships over the centuries.

Calvert Cliffs Offshore Zone

(Approx. 38.40° N,
76.40° W)

Storms, shoals,
and shifting currents—
dangerous waters for old ships.

Solomons / Drum Point Wreck Zone

(Approx. 38.32° N,
76.45° W)

Busy waterways,
storms, and wartime
traffic led to many
ship losses.

Colonial Merchant Losses?

Stories of lost cargo,
coins, and supplies
from colonial times.

SOLOMONS ISLAND

SOLOMONS HARBOR

PATUXENT RIVER

Patuxent Approaches (Wartime Activity)

War of 1812 British naval activity and
supply routes.

Pirate or Privateer Hideout?

Local legends tell of hidden caches along the shorelines
and in the creeks.

Calvert Marine Museum & Drum Point Lighthouse

Great places to learn about our maritime history!

DID YOU KNOW?

Many ships carried goods
like tobacco, rum, coins,
and treasures. Some never made it to their destination!

ADVENTURE ★ HISTORY ★ DISCOVERY

Remember: These are historic areas.
Always ask permission, stay safe,
and enjoy the journey!

Ava's Note

The Bay keeps many secrets.
Be curious, be brave,
and always respect
the water!

